

A Home Treatment for Asthma

At Worcester, Mass., doctor has suggested the following simple, harmless and inexpensive home treatment for bronchial asthma, chronic coughs and colds and colds which threaten to affect the lungs.

At Lee & Osgood's, or any reliable druggist, get a bottle of Oxidase (essential oil) tablets and slowly dissolve one tablet in mouth at regular intervals. Through habit and treatment, they are so powerful in their action that even in stubborn cases relief often comes in just a few minutes.

Many users who for years have been obliged to sit up in bed gasping for breath and unable to sleep, report that they now take an Oxidase tablet when going to bed and can then lie down and breathe easily and peacefully and get a good night's restful sleep.

Druggists everywhere are selling Oxidase tablets and will give you a full refund of the full purchase price to return the full package if it fails to promptly relieve any case of bronchial coughs or asthma.

TAFVILLE

Funeral services for Miss Emma Frohman were held at her late home, 64 Norwich avenue, of this village, Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Arthur Varley of the Taffville Congregational church officiated.

Many friends and relatives from out of town attended the funeral. There were many beautiful floral tributes, among which were the following: Heart of Jesus, roses and lilies from Mr. and Mrs. Martin Meyer and family, standing cross from Mr. and Mrs. John Day and family, star from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Volkman and family, roses and lilies from Mrs. Mary Meyer and family, spray of daffodils from Mrs. Jacob Meyer and family, spray of roses from Mrs. Henry Hedler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thurlow, Mrs. Mary Ploss and family, Mrs. Mary Ploss, Miss Mary Hanlon, from "A Friend," Miss Annie Vogtman, Heberding family, sprays of sweet peas from Mrs. Marion Dougherty and Miss Agnes Dougherty, Mrs. Wood sprays of roses from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Breaud and family, Mary and Loretta, pillow marked Daughter from mother and father, standing wreath marked Sister from Anna Frohman, basket of lilies and roses from John Frohman, standing crescent with dove from Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Frohman, wreath of roses and violets from Mrs. Isabella Frohman, pillow marked Emma from Mr. and Mrs. John Grieshammer and family, spray of 10 Easter lilies from Emma and Margaret Grieshammer, pillow At Rest from Mrs. William Frohman and family, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Delor Mossey and family. The bearers were Joseph Blair, William Blanchard, John Taylor, L. L. Doherty, John Hurd and John Sullivan. Burial was in Maplewood cemetery. G. G. Grant was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Lesson on Overcoming Difficulties

The topic of the study of the Bible class at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening was "Overcoming difficulties." The story of Zachaeus was read from the Gospel of Luke, and the following points were brought out in the study. Zachaeus was a tax collector and therefore was despised by the people generally; though he was rich he was very unpopular. Zachaeus from curiosity desired to see Jesus, and though his short stature was a distinct handicap he was so determined to see him that he climbed a tree. A strong man in favor of Zachaeus was that when Jesus asked him to come down he immediately obeyed and took the Master home with him. Thus in close contact with Jesus, Zachaeus fell in love with him and to prove his change of heart, and his love for the Christ he at once offered to give half his fortune to the poor, and to pay back four times as much as he had taken wrongfully. It was suggested that when a man really falls in love with Jesus, everything is secondary to his interest in the Kingdom of God.

Continued to Saturday.

In the police court Monday morning Pasquale Capagne, alias Pasquale Carboni, 27, of Groton, was presented on the charge of burglary at the Glen Hazard Mills on the night of Dec. 31, but the case was set to Saturday. Capagne went to jail in default of bonds of $2,000.

AWARD TO DEPENDENT DAUGHTER

A finding and award in the case of Margaret Sullivan, dependent daughter of the late Patrick Sullivan of No. 17 Spring street, and claimant against The American Thermos Bottle Company of this city, was made public on Tuesday afternoon by Compensation Commissioner James J. Donohue.

The case was heard by agreement at the office of the commissioner on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Sullivan was employed by the Thermos Bottle Company. It was found from the testimony that he was employed in the shipping department. February 27, he walked into an open elevator shaft, the gate being open, and fell to the bottom of the shaft, his skull being fractured by the fall.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

PLAN ATHLETIC CLUB

An organization meeting for the purpose of establishing a Knights of Columbus athletic club was held at K. of C. home on Broadway Tuesday evening. A general committee was appointed to make arrangements and with several sub-committees that were appointed to draw up rules and regulations governing that club. Other committees were appointed to arrange for a baseball team for the coming season and to stimulate interest in wrestling, boxing and track events.

Y. M. C. A. AUXILIARY HAS

FUTURE PLANS OUTLINED

The March meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. was held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. P. Bishop, 159 Broadway.

Following a short devotional service with prayer led by General Secretary Edwin Hill, the usual business reports were read.

Mrs. Allyn L. Brown, president, stated that all was in readiness to take place this (Wednesday) evening at the Community House and that the sale of tickets had been very large. The future plans for the auxiliary include a rummage sale of indefinite date, though probably in April, with prospects of a ball game between the professional and business men of the city, some time in June on the state hospital field.

As Chaplain Alexander of the submarine bureau who was the day before the speaker of the afternoon was unavoidably detained, Secretary Hill spoke in an interesting way of a recent trip to Hartford, where he had the privilege of meeting Sherman Eddy, who for twenty years has acted as foreign secretary for the international Y. M. C. A. committee. There is today a great opportunity and open door for the Y. M. C. A. in foreign lands, for this organization can often enter where the church may not go, for reasons of protesting, India and China are both fertile fields and the interest there is constantly growing.

Mr. Hill also told of the shop meetings which are being held regularly every week in the Shetucket Woolens Mill, the West Side Silk Mill and the Norwich Woolen Mill, and the interest shown by the employees in the music and brief talk of ten minutes toward the end of each shift. The Shetucket Mill shop is led by Mrs. W. Russell Baird has rendered great service, with her beautiful songs and instrumental music.

On every Wednesday, a talk is given at the West Side Silk Mill, with usually, sixty to eighty employees, representing seven or eight different nationalities. A stereopticon slide of the Pilgrim's Progress was recently shown, then, to the pleasure and interest of all.

The Norwich Woolen Mill holds the banner for the largest attendance at these talks, from one hundred to one hundred and fifty employees being always present in the herculean task where music is supplied by a cornet and euphonium, and great enthusiasm always prevails. While the shop talks are not entirely religious, on account of the great variety of creeds and sects represented, the speakers always try to present some practical thoughts bearing on true religion, which will help the men to live and better cooperation with one's fellow men.

JAMES E. VICKRIDGE IS

NEAR 97TH BIRTHDAY

James E. Vickridge of Hanover will reach his ninety-seventh birthday on Saturday, March 6, on his ninetieth birthday he wrote to a Norwich friend, "I am very well and able to do a good deal of some kinds of work, and I have taken their full of physical strength."

These recurring birthdays give to Norwich and Hanover friends the prized opportunity for calls, greetings and gifts to the oldest member of the church and community, and thereby show their respect and affection.

Mr. Vickridge was for over thirty years the leading drygoods merchant of Norwich, with a store at 20 Shetucket street, establishing a business there in 1850. After several years he moved to Hanover, where his wife's health purchased a home in Hanover, and for years drove a pair of horses to and from Norwich daily as at that time there were no trolleys.

There were no reports of influenza cases made to the city health officer's office Monday and only two cases reported all last week. Reports of measles and scarlet fever among children continue to be made to the health department.
